

Counter-strategies against militarised masculinity in and following armed conflicts

Expert talk

Presenter: Gunda-Werner-Institute for Feminism and Gender Democracy in the hbs, in conjunction with: medica mondiale and the German Women's Security Council.

Date/Time: 18.5. 2011, 1 – 7 p.m.

Venue: Heinrich Boell Foundation, Schumannstr. 8, 10117 Berlin, Germany

program

- 12.30 pm arrival, refreshments
13.00 pm welcome/ introduction: Gitti Hentschel, director GWI
13.10 pm 1. outline of the problem: Andrea Böhm journalist, who did intensive research concerning the problem militarised masculinity and sexual violence and its aftermath in context of conflict and war
13.35 pm moderated discussion
14.00 pm 2. traumatization by militarised masculinity in post conflict regions- the impact on the next generation Monika Hauser, founder and director of medica mondiale
14.25 pm moderated discussion
15.10 pm coffee break
15.40 pm 3. experience from (post)conflict regions; Chris Dolan director of the Refugee Law Project working with men in Uganda
16.05 pm moderated discussion
16.40 pm refreshments
17.00 pm 4. experience from (post)conflict regions; Patrick Godana Sonke Gender Justice Network working with men in South Africa
17.25 pm moderated discussion
18.15 pm conclusions working in and from Germany: possible strategies and concrete service concepts
Gitti Hentschel/Monika Hauser, open discussion 19.00 pm small buffet

concept and realisation: Gitti Hentschel, Marieke Krämer organisation: Christine Weiß, contact: GWI, Tel. 030-28534122, Gunda-Werner-Institut@boell.de